OPENING: October 20, 2008

AMBIANCE: Located in downtown Scottsdale's SouthBridge district, Metro Brasserie & Bar is a unique neighborhood restaurant featuring rustic French country cooking with influences from the American South. Selections range from house-made pâté and sausages, to mustards and breads. The restaurant offers breakfast, lunch, dinner and late night eats in the Metro dining room or outdoors on the Patio overlooking SouthBridge's town square. The Seafood Raw Bar selection showcases the finest and freshest shellfish, flown in daily. Metro Brasserie is wonderful for a quick bite or equally as charming for a long leisurely lunch or dinner.

CHEF: Christopher Mayo, Executive Chef

MENU: Rustic French country cooking with influences from the American South

Metro's Breakfast consists of French and Cajun inspired favorites such as Eggs Benedict, Crepes de Jour, grilled Andouille Sausage and artesian Grits with Eggs, or our own addictive Beignets. The restaurant also offers freshly brewed Coffee, freshly squeezed Orange or Grapefruit juice, and signature "Hangover Cocktails.

Lunch and Dinner feature French classics including Fruits de Mer, Beef Burgundy, slow cooked Rabbit, and a variety of Salads and Sandwiches. Each night Metro Brasserie features “Dinner for Two”; including authentic dishes such as Cassoulet and Bouillabaise that are served with a half liter Carafe of wine. In addition, Metro also features a late night menu with restaurant favorites until 2 am.
